

Tattoo design brief

Use this page to prepare a conversation with your artist. Leave room for changes.
Write dimensions with units and a budget with currency. Attach credited references.

1. Subject and meaning

What is the main idea? Share only the personal context you want to discuss.

---

---

2. Placement and starting size

Body area: _____ Height: _____ Width: _____ Units: _____

---

3. Visual priorities and flexibility

Name two or three qualities. Mark what is essential and what the artist may adapt.

---

---

4. References and attribution

For each reference: maker, book/page or URL, and the specific quality you like.

---

---

---

5. Practical constraints

Budget/currency, scheduling, clothing, existing tattoos, or access arrangements.

---

---

6. Questions and the next step

Artist suggestions, open questions, who will do what, and when you will review it.

---

---

---

Keep medical details for an appropriate private intake or clinical conversation.
This is a planning worksheet, not consent to a design, procedure, or payment.

---

Guide: yenra.com/tattoo-books-of-pics/

Consultation: yenra.com/first-tattoo-consultation/

Yenra | October 6, 2026 | 1 / 1